

Kingdom Year 1070, Fall

After the collapse of the capital and the events of the Southern Slave Rebellion, the human kingdom of Philadelphia Earthrise fell into complete chaos.

As a result, refugees flooded into the once-declining northern cities. Through the efforts of the president of the Akron Slave Market, a measure of stability was achieved.

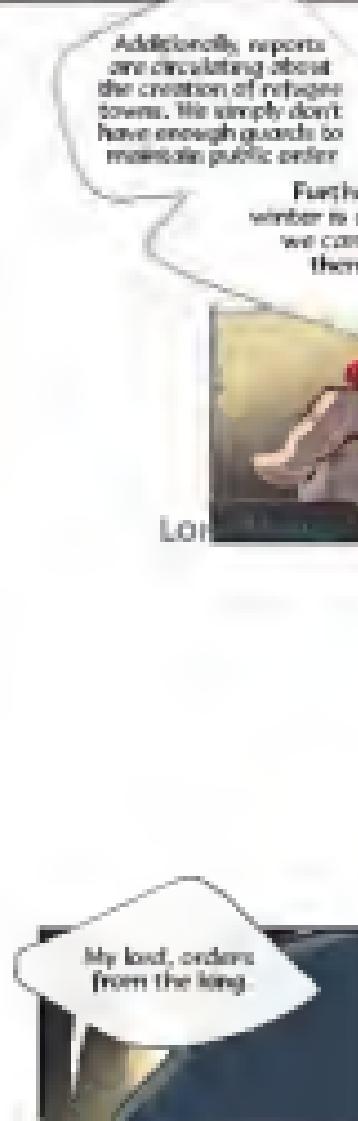

With the rebellion in the south, requests for food rations have increased. Not only that, but we don't have enough housing and our facilities are deteriorating.

Additionally, reports are circulating about the creation of refugee towns. We simply don't have enough guards to maintain public order.

Furthermore, winter is coming and we cannot take them all in.

Our first priority is those who will be profitable...

My lord, orders from the king.

What are they??

The 'mountain'
that caused the major catastrophe in the capital has moved towards the Northern Great Plains,

so a special investigator will be sent from the kingdom.

The Lord of Derton
Dukeling, Derton

A special investigator?

Since the death of Count Straviv, various incidents have prevented us from maintaining contact with the central government.

We have to take this opportunity to catch their attention.

Yes.

Ah, also,

It is reported that the woman has arrived.

Is that so?

Prince Leifheit
personally brought her home.

It is definitely a significant matter.

Keep watching
them in secret

You should know
how to write..

What's your favorite?

Remember... I need to feed my members.

This collar
around my neck -

I don't know how it works, but it restrains me in the same way the Labyrinth sealed the Dragon Pearl's power.

My inability to speak is just a side effect.

Prancer Redheart.

He offered to partner with me to get rid of the garrison, but after seeing his tactics at Tatsumi, I couldn't trust him. So, I rejected him...

...After that, my memories are fuzzy.

LONE PAPA

Don't you know
how to write?

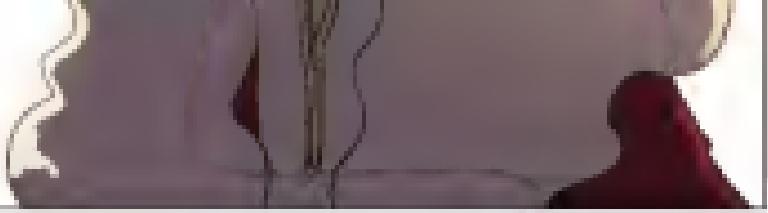

The law requires
children to learn basic language skills
until age twelve.

Though, I suppose
some men don't maintain that law...

In the top panel, a close-up of a person's face is shown. The person has dark, wavy hair and is wearing a red, high-collared garment. The lighting is soft, highlighting the contours of their face and the texture of their hair.

Is that your name?

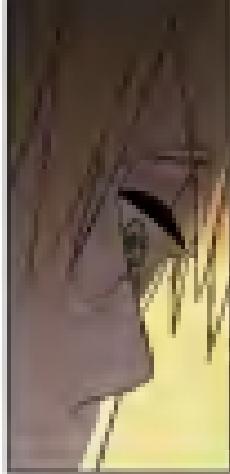

A character with blonde hair featuring blue highlights is shown in profile, looking down. They are wearing a dark red garment. The background is a warm, orange-yellow color.

The tall one is Kazuk, the short one is Maruya. Please let me see them.

"I won't cooperate with anything until you let me
see my companions again."

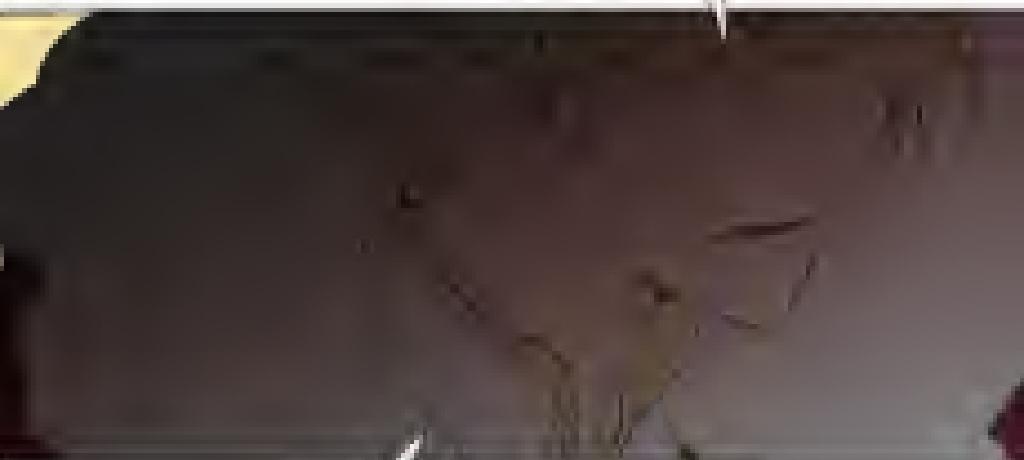

SNATCH

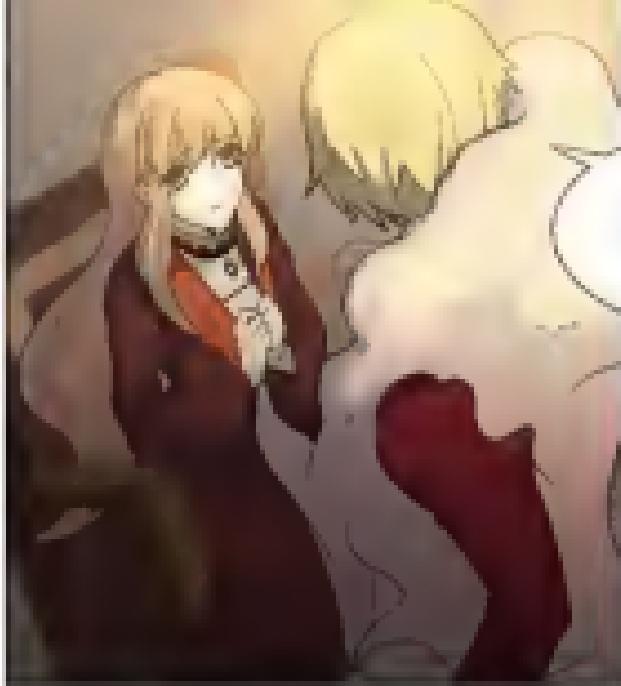

A dark, shadowed figure with a speech bubble above it.

It seems that you've mistaken me.

A dark, shadowed figure with a speech bubble below it.

I don't require
your power.

I don't mind if
my subordinates
can't reach you,
either.

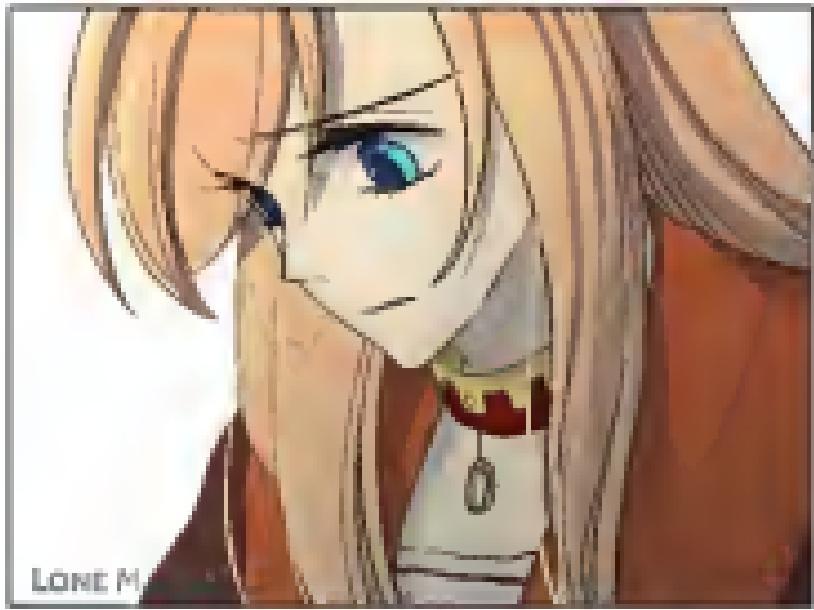

But you,

putting aside
that young Dragon
and Iruug,

haven't much more to live.

Now.

Listen closely this time.

The Rockhard Family's Mansion Residence

AHHHH!!

CRASH

Has she been in that store since—

CRASH

YEAH...

Chhhh

Grandmother.
It's me, Eren.

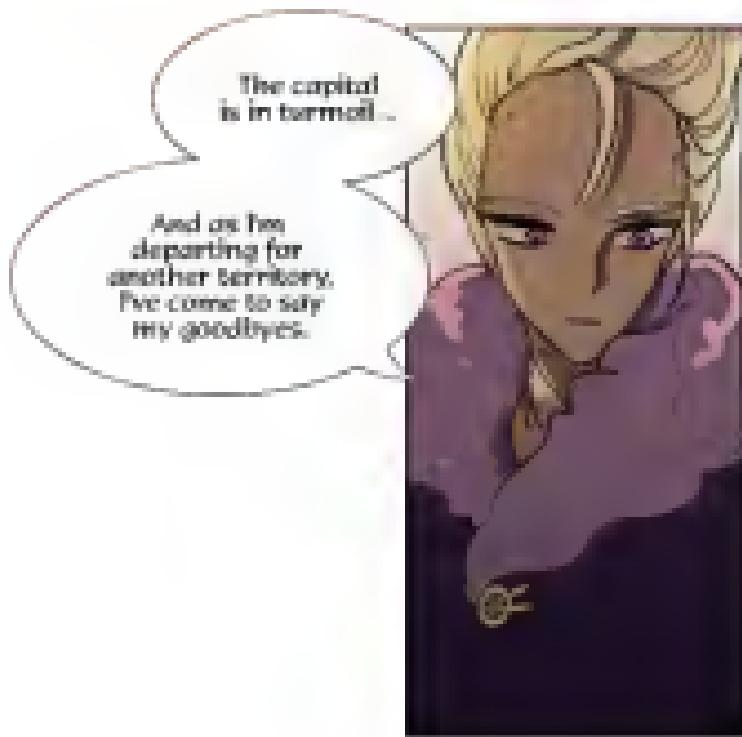

I'm coming in.

TUM

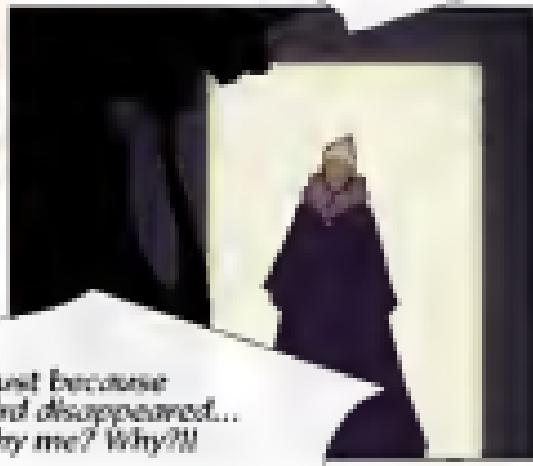

Do you would visit
that barren wasteland,
would you?

Well, you've always favoured that place.

Why... Why must I grow old so suddenly like this?

If it's you...

You seem tired.

The contractor's body relies upon the strength of the mind.

but she's been
using the Dragon's
powder as a stimulant
all this time...

It's too late
for her now.

In this case, the only solution is...

You know what
this is, right?

—How weird was the experience that?

Consume this and finish it.

Obtain the
'complete Dragon
Ring' that someone failed to acquire.

I'm not telling
you to go alone,
though

I know that consuming block. Bye

is such a disgraceful debt to an outstanding contractor such as yourself!

That's why

I'll loan you one of my reliable retainers.
